

Welcome to our May Newsletter. Our Match Play Championship was the main focus in our second game of the season with players going head to head in round one. Byes to the top 4 seeds enabled them an easy passage to the second round, whilst sadly an injury to Gav Bennett forced him forfeit his game to Bob Coyne. In the three remaining matches, Fordy torpedoed The Whale 4/2. Dave Ephraums held off Roger 1 up and Mick Norrey eased past Dave Pietrzak 7/6.

Our next game is the second round of the 2010 Match Play Competition. Fox's review and likely winners. Qualifying positions in brackets.

- (1) Steve Norrey v (6) Steve Ford: Should be a great match. Both players match up well. Steve's is in red hot form. Fordy will be trying to cool the flames.
- (2) Phil Barling v (5) Mick Norrey: A replay of last years final. Can the Fox do it again? Mick is after his scalp. He may just do it.
- (3) Col Wenman v (9) Dave Ephraums: Will Dave cause another upset. Col will have experience on his side. Dave will give it his best. Col will be better.
- (4) Dave Robbo v (8) Bob Coyne: Which Robbo will turn up. No doubt Bob has a plan for both. Good Robbo wins. Bad Robbo Bobby's your man.

Best of luck to all players.

A small field of 12 players took to the Rossdale course and again scores were very competitive. Steve Norrey has made a great start to the season and made it two wins in a row by taking out Best Net with a score of 69 Net, and showed he is the player to beat this year.

Runner/up, one shot behind and keeping up the pressure on his old man was Mick Norrey with 70 Net plus numerous novelties.

3rd on a count back also with 70 Net was Phil The Fox Barling who is starting to wonder how do I beat these ##### Norrey's. But alls well on the greens 26 putts was a good effort by The Fox.

Col Wenman had another good round to take out 4th Net with 71 just ahead of Terry Bryan who shot a score of 73 Net.

Best Gross went to Roger Foenander with 85. Special mention to Dave Ephraums, who performed well last month and followed it up this month with another good effort by winning his Match Play game, taking out The Longest Drive 18th in B grade and best 9 out.

Our next game is on Monday May 24th at Rossdale Golf club. As you all know our numbers have been down, so ask around and get some mates, friends and family along for a game, the more the merrier.

The Footy swindle is off and running, Well done to the winners so far. Those who have not yet paid please get your $20.00 to Phil Barling as soon as you can.
