

Welcome to our September Newsletter which is being produced after the required dead line, but you have to appreciate the massive effort it takes to put together such a detailed document. The time and effort which goes into gathering all the stats and information, plus researching all the details can be very time consuming. Sounds impressive, but I must confess, lack of motivation, and enthusiasm combined with being a bit slack were closer to the truth. So I will soldier on and hope I can lift my game for the rest of the year.

The Semi Finals of the Match Play Competition were played with Mick Norrey having the better of Col Wenman 3/2 and Steve Ford edged past Bob Coyne 2 up.

THE FINAL

(5) Michael Norrey v (6) Steve Ford : Should be a closely contested Final Can Mick go one better than last year or will Fordy spoil his party. Blow out the candles Fordy.

Best of luck to both players

A month is a long time in golf, just ask Steve Norrey. Steve played a shocker last month, but he went away and took a few deep breaths and came back and produced the goods this month taking out Best Net with a score of 71 Net.

Dave Robinson found the form that has deserted him lately and received a boost to his confidence by taking out 2nd Net with 74 Net.

Steve Ford continued his consistency with 75 Net and 3rd Net. He also won NTP 12th and NTP 2nd shot 10th hole.

Mick Norrey returns to the prize list with 76 Net and 4th Net on a count back from Steve Boka Creely, also with 76 Net. This could be the result that could give Boka the momentum to lift his game to another level.

Best Gross with a score of 87 was Phil Barling.

On a Social Level. The Whale has returned from the sun, sand and surf of Thailand where he has been beached for the last Month. Needed a King tide to shift him.

Good to see Chris Bryan, Son of Bear get a contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the American NFL. We wish him all the best in his debut season.

On Saturday 7th and Sunday 8th of August we travelled to Newry for the 50th Traralgon VRI Centre day. We enjoyed beautiful winter sunshine for the weekend. Phil Barling partnered Lorna Morgan from Newry and came runner/up in the Mixed Canadian on the Saturday. On Sunday Mick Norrey won the Barry Williams Cup in A grade, Phil won the A Grade 18 holes Net and The Bear won the A grade 9 holes Net in the Afternoon. Well done to Jimmy Middleton and all his helpers for a great event. Where once again the ladies of Newry put Master Chef to shame.
