

Welcome to our May Newsletter. Our Match Play Championship got underway with first round matches being completed. Walkovers to the Andrew McInroy, Peter Kowalski and Brian Hibberd gave them an easy passage to the second round. In the remaining matches, it was Col Wenman comfortably over Dave Barton, Phil Barling too steady for Gav Bennett; Steve Norrey held off a gallant Geoff Moody, Mick Norrey too strong for Adam Visscher and the game between Terry Bryan and Ian Strahan was a very relaxed affair with Terry taking the honours.

MATCH PLAY RESULTS

C Wenman def D Barton 7 up
S Norrey def G Moody 3/2
P Barling def G Bennett 3up
M Norrey def A Visscher 4/3
T Bryan def I Strahan 5/4
P Kowalski def S Creely W/O
A McInroy def R Foenander W/O
B Hibberd def D Pietrzak W/O

Our next game is the second round of the 2011 Match Play Competition. Fox's review and likely winners. Qualifying positions in brackets.

- (1) Col Wenman v (12) Andrew McInroy: Col is top seed and is hoping to stay there. Andrew will be out to topple him from his perch. Col will hang on.
- (2) Steve Norrey v (11) Peter Kowalski: Hard to select a winner. Two top players. Eenie meeney miney mo, throw the dart, toss a coin. Steve I Think
- (3) Phil Barling v (7) Brian Hibberd: The President v The Captain The Fox v The Whale. Vermin v Japanese research. I will go with green peace Save The Whale
- (4) Mick Norrey v (9) Terry Bryan: Who picks these games. Too much like hard work. Rock paper scissors. Phone a friend. Go with the high handicapper Terry

Best of luck to all players.

14 players took to the Rossdale course which was in much better condition than last month and should be back to its best in no time. The players rose to the occasion with scores again very competitive.

Steve Norrey has made a great start to the season and came away with the win on a count back from the improving Terry Bryan, both having 65 net. Steve kept up the Norrey dominance on the Longest Drives by taking out both on the 5th and 18th, whilst The Bear is finding some good form in readiness for the Interstate Carnival coming up in the next few weeks.

Phil The Fox Barling was not far off the pace, nipping at their heels taking out 3rd net with a score of 69

Geoff Moody would have been quite happy with his 74 net and 4th place, but sometimes you can never tell with Geoffrey, a much focused individual.

Gavin Bennett came in 5th with 75 net, which will be good for his confidence after being frustrated with injuries which prevented him from playing as much as he would liked.

Best Gross with a score of 83 was Peter Killer Kowalski

Special mention to Ian Strahan who performed well in his second game with a good effort by winning best 9 out NTP 2nd shot 10th hole and took the money on the 3rd betting hole.

Welcome to Pat Bartig for his first game, which he would have enjoyed, being entertained by The Bear and Strahanie.

The Footy swindle is off and running, Well done to the winners so far. Those who have not yet paid please get your $25.00 to Phil Barling as soon as you can.

The Intersystem's Carnival is on during the month of May which is being played in and around Melbourne. We hope to have a report in next month's newsletter and report on how the Victorians went in that competition.
